STANDING ORDERS

1. Powers and Duties of the Chairman

The person presiding at a meeting may exercise all the powers and duties of the Chairman in relation to the conduct of the meeting.

2. Proper Officer

The Proper Officer of the Council and The Responsible Financial Officer of the Council is the Clerk. Other duties and responsibilities of the Clerk are as laid down in the Conditions of Service Contract and Job Description.

Notwithstanding those duties and responsibilities, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to advise Members on the content and interpretation of these Standing Orders.

3. Quorum

Three Members shall constitute a quorum. If a quorum is not present when the Council meets or if during a meeting the number of Members, for whatever reason, falls below the quorum, the business not transacted at that meeting shall be transacted at the next meeting or on such other day as the Chairman may decide.

4. Voting

Members shall vote by show of hands unless the meeting decides otherwise.

If the meeting so requires, the Clerk shall record the names of the Members who voted on any question and how they voted.

The Chairman may give an original vote on any matter put to the vote and, in the case of equality of votes, may give a casting vote, whether or not an original vote was given.

5. Order of Business

The order of business shall be stated on an agenda paper which shall be delivered electronically to each Member at least three clear days (excluding week-ends) prior to the date of the meeting along with the summons convening the meeting.

6. Resolutions Moved on Notice

Except as provided by these Standing Orders, no resolution may be moved unless the business to which it relates has been included on the Agenda, or which the chairman of the meeting approves.

Members may put an item or notice of resolution on the Agenda by giving the Clerk written notice of the item or resolution at least seven clear days (excluding week-ends) prior to the meeting to which that agenda relates.

Every resolution, amendment or recommendation shall be relevant to a subject over which the Council has the power or which affects its area.

7. Resolutions Moved Without Notice

Resolutions on procedural matters may be moved without notice including those to vary the order of business on grounds of urgency or procedural efficiency. Such resolutions shall be put to the vote without discussion.

8. Rules of Debate

All remarks shall be addressed to the Chairman. No discussion shall take place on the minutes of previous meetings except upon their accuracy. Corrections to the minutes shall be made by resolution agreed by all members.

The ruling of the Chairman on a point of order or on the admissibility of an item shall not be discussed.

A representative of the local Constabulary and District and County Council members shall be allowed to speak at Council meetings at the discretion of the Chairman.

Members are required to declare the existence and nature of a personal interest in an item on the Agenda and decide whether their interest is prejudicial.

If a member declares a personal interest he/she must declare it and if it is prejudicial must leave the meeting room for the period of the item discussion.

9. Closure

A motion of closure of a debate may be moved at any time but must be proposed and seconded without comment. The Chairman may refuse such motion if he feels that the question before the Council has not been sufficiently debated.

10. Rescission of Previous Resolutions

A decision of the Council (whether affirmative or negative) shall not be reversed within six months except by a special resolution, the written notice of which bears the names of at least three Members of the Council. When such a resolution has been disposed of, no similar resolution may be moved within a further six months.

11. Confidential Business

No Member of the Council shall disclose to any person, not being a Member of the Council, any business declared to be confidential by the Council.

12. District and County Councillors

District and County Councillors who are not also Parish Councillors shall be invited to attend meetings and shall be sent copies of agendas, minutes and other relevant documentation. They may be allowed to speak at the discretion of the Chairman.

13. Length of Meetings

Except at the discretion of the Chairman, all meetings of the Council shall finish not later than two hours after commencement. Any business not transacted shall be carried over to the next meeting or such other date as the Chairman may decide.

14. Reporting of meetings

The press is entitled to attend meetings at times other than when the council has given notice of going into private session, the reason for which must be stated in advance and agreed by a majority of the council. Filming and recording of a meeting is permitted but members of the public have a right to refuse to be involved. It is not permissible for an oral report or comment about a meeting to be made as it takes place.

15. Suspension of Standing Orders

These Standing Orders may be suspended at any time and for any period of time by resolution.

16. Standing Orders to be Given to Members

A copy of these Standing Orders shall be given to all Members.

17. Interpretation

Any item not covered shall be deemed to be governed by the current Standing Orders for Meetings produced by the National Association of Local Councils.
